Emancipation Commemoration will feature re-enactments, remembrances and youth choir

The Commemoration of Robert Carter III's 1791 Deed of Emancipation will feature historical re-enactments, family remembrances, moving songs and information on historical and genealogical research. The event will begin at 10 a.m. Saturday, September 6, at Historic Christ Church, 420 Weems Road, Weems.

It commemorates the lives and descendants of more than 500 enslaved persons eventually freed by Robert Carter III's Deed of Emancipation, filed at District Court at Northumberland County Courthouse on September 5, 1791, said education director and curator Robert Teagle.

Lori Coombs, a descendant of one of the families manumitted by the 1791 act, will read key portions of the document. Re-enactors Gerry Underdown as Robert Carter III and James Ingram as African-American Baptist minister Gowan Pamphlet will present a dialogue on slavery, freedom and other issues in late 18th-century Virginia, said Teagle.

Regina Gaskins Baylor will share her experiences as a descendant of one of the families manumitted by the act. Baylor resides on the same home place on the Yeocomico River where her great-grandfather raised his family.

The Sharon Baptist Youth Choir also will perform at the event. Evangelist Mabel Robinson will lead the choir in three songs. The audience will be invited to join in a fourth song, James Weldon Johnson and John Rosamond Johnson's "Lift Every Voice and Sing," at the program's conclusion, according to Teagle.

Following the program, visitors may explore historical and genealogical resources for finding family roots in Virginia. Historic Christ Church's museum and reception center also will be open, and the gift shop will have a 20% sale.

The program is sponsored by the Northern Neck of Virginia Historical Society, the Mary Ball Washington Museum & Library and the Foundation for Historic Christ Church.

Donations are suggested. The Rappahannock Foundation for the Arts provided a generous grant to support the historical re-enactors and youth choir.

Preservation speaker

Northern Neck Conservancy land preservation specialist Bobbie Burton will present a program to the Rappahannock Garden Club on The Ecological Benefits of Conservation Easements. The meeting will begin at noon Thursday, September 11. Burton will discuss some of the properties on the Northern Neck that are preserved and how they benefit the land and water around. The public is welcome to join the garden club for a buffet lunch, brief meeting and the program to follow at Grace Episcopal Church, 303 South Main Street, Kilmarnock.

Tickets available for Talent Extravaganza

Talent Extravaganza 2014 will feature 24 different performances. The annual Kilmarnock Museum fundraiser will begin at 7 p.m. September 20 at the Lancaster Middle School Theater, 191 School Street, Kilmarnock.

Anna and Elsa impersonators from the Disney movie "Frozen" will visit Lancaster Middle School at 6 p.m. to sign autographs and pose for pictures with girls age 3 to 7, wearing their best princess costumes.

One young lady will be selected to be Miss Extravaganza, said Kilmarnock Museum president Carroll Lee Ashburn. She will get a complete makeover by Jennifer Bishop of Merle Norman and a photo session with Yours Truly before being crowned on stage.

A special tribute to Disney by Spotlight Studio of Dance should also entertain the younger set along with Penscola's Jackie Diggs who performs with hula hoops, and 9-year-old vocalist Courtney Harrison.

Other acts will include the Peanut City Cloggers.

Tickets are $10 for adults and $5 for ages 12 and younger. Advance tickets are available at the Rappahannock Record, Foxy, Heads Up Hairworks, Bank of Lancaster, main branch and White Stone branch, Chesapeake Bank Lively branch and the museum.

Mathews Market Days slated September 5 & 6

The 40th annual Mathews Market Days will be celebrated from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday and Saturday, September 5 and 6, on the Courthouse Green in the heart of Mathews.

Admission and parking are free, according to Trudy Flippin. A variety of activities and vendors will be located throughout the festival area.

On Saturday only, shuttle bus transportation will be available at no cost from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. Stops include Lee Jackson/Thomas Hunter Middle School on Church Street, Mathews High School on Buckley Hall Road on the corner of Court and Church streets.

Friday evening entertainment will include the Courthouse Community Orchestra at 7 p.m. at the Mathews High School Auditorium and "Party at the Wharf" with Groove Tide at Williams Wharf from 5 to 9 p.m.

Saturday evening entertainment will include the Street Dance from 8 to 11 p.m. at Brickbat and Court streets with Stokin and Terry Black.

For a schedule of activities, vendor list and fees, visit mathewsmarketdays.com.

Tompkins Cottage on Brickbat Road (above) will be open 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday and Saturday, September 5 and 6, during Mathews Market Days. The cottage is the headquarters for the Mathews County Historical Society (MCHS). Docents will offer tours of the cottage and gardens. According to MCHS Market Days chairman Dee Bane, outside exhibits will include the New Point Lighthouse Project, the United Daughters of the Confederacy, the Sons of Confederate Veterans, the Fairfield Foundation and the Middle Peninsula Chapter of the Archaeological Society of Virginia.

Oyster Tasting Sept. 28 to benefit Jacob's Ladder

The Jacob's Ladder fourth annual Oyster Tasting will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. September 28 at Merrior, 784 Locklies Creek Road, Topping.

The tasting will offer the perfect opportunity to learn about native oysters reintroduced into the Chesapeake Bay by Ryan and Travis Croxton, owners of Rappahannock River Oysters, and to visit Merrior, according to Peg Davis, vice chairman of the Jacob's Ladder board of directors.

The cost of $60 includes the oysters, beer, wine, chowder, condiments and nonalcoholic beverages. For tickets, call 758-0712 by September 24.

Jacob's Ladder is a program for at-risk, gifted children in Virginia and North Carolina, in grades 4-8, who can benefit from a proactive enrichment program that helps them to reach their full potential.

The goal is to foster the intellectual, social, emotional and physical development of these children, to provide support and information to the family unit, and to offer guidance in planning for advanced education.

Many students from the Middle Peninsula and Northern Neck are in the program, said Davis.

Museum to host oyster roast/dance

The eighth annual oyster roast and dance will be held from 5 to 9 p.m. September 13 at Deltaville Maritime Museum and Holly Point Nature Park, 287 Jackson Creek Road, Deltaville.

A social hour will be held from 5 to 6 p.m., cash bar from 5 to 8 p.m., the buffet from 6 to 7 p.m., followed by the dance, reported events director Bill Powell.

The menu will feature roasted oysters, raw oysters, Oysters Rockefeller, chowder, barbecue, string beans, potatoes, cole slaw, tea and water. Music will be provided by Jumbo Lump Daddy and the Backfin Boys.

Advance tickets are $30 and are available at the museum and Nauti-Nell's in Deltaville. Museum members can enjoy a discount of four tickets for $100. After September 6 and at the door, tickets are $35.

Upcoming barbecue dinner to benefit Boys & Girls Club

Set for September 26, Campbell Memorial Presbyterian Church's fourth annual North Carolina-style barbecue dinner will benefit the Boys & Girls Club of the Northern Neck.

The meal will feature barbecued pork imported from Parker's Barbecue in Wilson, N.C., and includes hush puppies, cole slaw, baked beans, beverage and dessert.

Available from church members, the church office, or the Boys & Girls Club, the $10 ticket can be used for eating in or taking out, reported Jane Tims.

Tickets may be used at lunch from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., or at supper from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m., at the church, 3712 Weems Road, Weems. Tickets should be purchased by September 21.

Campbell's Pig-Ex delivery team again will deliver lunches to groups ordering 10 or more meals for the same site. For group orders, call 438-6875, or email office@campbellchurch.net.

"We're well positioned and able to work with the kids to provide a positive and safe place to learn and grow outside the school day," said club executive director Phil lip Mumford. "It has been proven that if children come to the club at least two days a week, we have a greater ability to change their lives and outcomes. We are actively seeking mentors from the community to work with these children after school."

At a recent ice cream social on the church lawn, pastor Clay Macaulay of Campbell Memorial Presbyterian Church serves ice cream to children from the Boys & Girls Club of the Northern Neck.

Campbell Church and The Boys & Girls Club have enjoyed a long and solid friendship, said Tims. Thirty-five children, ages 6-12, came from the club recently for an ice cream social on Campbell's front lawn.

In past years the church has donated recreational equipment and sponsored club trips to Flying Squirrels baseball games in Richmond. Volunteers from Campbell have painted interior walls, mentored children and led Bible studies at the club, she said.

Black Tie & Boots guests to 'Mingle at The Meadow'

Black Tie & Boots, the State Fair of Virginia's opening-night benefit gala, will begin at 5:30 p.m. September 26 with cocktails and heavy hors d'oeuvres in and around The Meadow Event Park's Meadow Hall.

Guests may savor wines from award-winning Virginia wineries, reported vice president of communications Greg Hicks. Fair officials will announce the Best in Show winner of the State Fair of Virginia Commercial Wine Competition.

The event also will feature dancing to Brad Spivey and The Honky Tonk Experience, as well as silent and live auctions. Fair-style surprises will feature prominently in the evening's entertainment, and appearances by fair performers are entirely possible, said Hicks.

After a decadent dessert, guests may enjoy the fair, including an opening-night concert by country band Parmalee.

Proceeds from Black Tie & Boots will benefit the State Fair of Virginia Scholarship Program, which awards scholarships to winners in many of the fair's youth competitions, he said.

Tickets are $110 each through September 15 and $125 each September 16 through Sept. 19, pending availability. A $500 party pack—six tickets for the price of five when purchased before September 16—is available as well.

The event has been billed as "down-home fun with an uptown kick," and guests previously have worn everything from old-school black tie to boots and jeans with formalwear flourishes, added Hicks.

The State Fair of Virginia will be held September 26 through October 5 at The Meadow Event Park in Caroline County.

Birthday celebration benefits potential pets

Celebrating her 12th birthday last week, Julianna Thacker chose to forego gifts and instead asked her friends to bring cat food and dog food to her party. The items were then presented to the Animal Welfare League of the Northern Neck. From left are Animal Welfare League volunteer Missy Reed and Thacker, a seventh-grader at Lancaster Middle School.

BIRTH

Clara E. Ashburn

WEEMS—Clara Elizabeth Ashburn, 92, of Weems died August 27, 2014, at the Lancashire Nursing Home where she spent the last 17 months of her life.

She was the daughter of Albert C. Ashburn and Gracie Haydon Ashburn. Her grandfather was Sandy B. Haydon Sr., one of the founders of Claybrook Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death by her parents, a sister, Rubinete A. Kellum, and a nephew, James Hathaway Kellum.

She is survived by her nephews, Curtis, Joseph and William Kellum of Weems; two nieces, Bert Bryant and Debbie K. Hardwick of Weems; and many great-nieces and nephews as well as several great-great-nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held August 30 at Claybrook Baptist Church, Weems, with interment in the Claybrook Baptist Church Cemetery. Visitation preceded the service at the church.

Her great-nephews served as pallbearers.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Claybrook Baptist Church Cemetery Endowment Fund, P.O. Box 15, Weems, VA 22576.

Currie Funeral Home LLC of Kilmarnock handled the arrangements.

High School and Centreville High School where she was upon her retirement.

Joycelyn loved her home on Antipoin Creek where she was an avid gardener. She loved boating, fishing, her walking buds, singing in the Chesapeake Chorale, singing in the choir at Kilmarnock UMC, her friends at KUMC, and being a docent at Historic Christ Church.

Memorial services will be held at 1 p.m. September 13 at KUMC, Kilmarnock.

Memorial contributions may be made to the ALS Association, 7507 Standish Place, Rockville, MD 20855.

Currie Funeral Home LLC of Kilmarnock handled the arrangements.

Hildwin H. Muller

IRVINGTON—Hildwin Clare Headley Muller died in Irvington on August 30, 2014, at the age of 93.

She was born in Baltimore, Md., on May 21, 1921, to Clare and Lewis Taliaferro Headley and was graduated from The University of Maryland with a bachelor's in nursing in 1941.

She became head nurse at The Johns Hopkins Hospital where she met and married Dr. William H. Muller Jr. in 1946. He predeceased her in 2012.

They resided in Charlottesville for over 50 years while Dr. Muller served as the chairman of the Department of Surgery and the vice president of Health Affairs at The University of Virginia Medical Center. As his wife, she devoted much of her time and energy to the university and the community it served; most notable was her involvement in the formation and development of the Children's Rehabilitation Center in the late '60s.

She also worked tirelessly for the surrounding Charlottesville community as well and was a member of the Rivanna Garden Club and St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Ivy.

Hillie Muller was a treasure and inspiration to her family and her many friends who loved her and will miss her sorely.

She is survived by her three children, William H. Muller III, Marietta Clare Muller Gwathmey and her husband, Frank Winston Gwathmey, and John Lewis Muller and his wife, Katherine Foster Muller. She also is survived by nine grandchildren and their spouses, Clare Gwathmey Dorn and Scott, Frank Winston Gwathmey Jr. and Kelly, William Richard Gwathmey and Sarah Holt, Rebecca Ann Muller, Mark William Muller, Matthew Thomas Muller, Sarah Muller Turnbull and Edward, John Lewis Muller Jr. and William Dixon Muller, and six great-grandchildren, William Edward Dorn, Alexandra Clare Dorn, Catherine Calder Gwathmey, Robert Ryland Gwathmey, Katherine Claybrook Turnbull and Edward Randolph Turnbull Jr.

A graveside service will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday, September 4, in The University Cemetery on The Grounds at the corner of Alderman and McCormick roads in Charlottesville. Memorial contributions may be made to Rappahannock Westminster-Canterbury, 132 Lancaster Drive, Irvington, VA 22480.

Thomas Rockson

REEDVILLE—Thomas Rockson, 99, of Reedville died August 29, 2014.

He owned T. Rockson Fur Company in Manhattan, N.Y. He also was a member of the American Legion, and an Army World War II veteran.

He was predeceased by his wife, Mary M. Rockson

He is survived by his sons, Thomas A. Rockson of Reedville and Bryan Rockson of Fredericksburg; three grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

The family received friends September 2 and 3 at Faulkner Family Funeral Home & Crematory Inc., Burgess.

Burial will be private at a later date.

Online remembrances may be made at faulknerfamilyfuneralhome.com.

An obituary for Albert W. J. Anderson appears on page B6

Camp S.W.A.G. concludes

Some 27 young men from around the Northern Neck recently completed Camp Success While Achieving Godliness (S.W.A.G.) at Macedonia Baptist. The Rev. Kevin Elmore and Bill Hines served as camp directors.

The goal of the camp is to instill essential life skills, expose them to life's possibilities and empower them with Godly principles, said the Rev. Kenneth Rioland, pastor of Macedonia. "These young men are great kids. Many just need more positive male role models in their lives," he said.

The young men had sessions on public speaking, the importance of giving back, health and hygiene, discipline, citizenship, boy/girl relationships, physical fitness and team building. They participated in a community service project partnering with the Boys & Girls Club of the Northern Neck to build the next Habitat for Humanity house in Lancaster County. Rev. Elmore said he was very proud of the boys that day as they really got involved in the construction of the Habitat house and picked up some new skills as well.

They received a real workout at Abilities Around Physical Therapy and Wellness Center in Callao. Jamie Venev, the wellness director at the center, took them through an exercise and fitness regiment that really got them moving.

On Education Day the guys traveled to Hampton University and the Apprentice School operated by Newport News Shipbuilding. Education Day opened the eyes of many of the young men to the possibilities available to them, said Hines.

The final day of camp the boys went to a Washington Nationals baseball game in Washington, D.C., a first for many of them.

Macedonia Baptist Church and the Macedonia Community Development Corporation thank all of the people who helped make Camp S.W.A.G. 2014 a success. Without the generous financial support from partners, donors and friends, this camp would not have happened, said Rev. Rioland.

Coan Baptist Church Youth above recently participated in a mission camp.

Coan church teens attend mission camp

Coan Baptist Church Youth recently participated in the Impact Virginia Mission Camp in Augusta County.

The camp is sponsored by the Virginia Baptist Mission Board, reported Sherri Kent. The Coan youth, along with 200 other teenagers from across Virginia and Maryland, were involved with providing needed home repairs such as roofing, floor replacements, the addition of wheel chair ramps, basic plumbing repairs and painting for families that could not afford to take care of the repairs on their own, said Kent.

This is the youth's 10th mission trip to the Appalachian Region, having served from the Tennessee-Georgia line through Eastern Kentucky, several locations in the New River Valley, and now the upper Blue Ridge Region, she said.

The youth thank those who supported them throughout this camp, added Kent.

Women's conference to open with concert

Macedonia Baptist Church Women's Ministry will host its seventh annual Women's Conference September 26 and 27 at Northumberland High School, 201 Academic Lane, Heathsville. The theme will be "Jewels 4 Jesus."

The conference will open with a gospel concert at 7 p.m. Friday, reported administrative assistant Gail Haynie. Doors will open at 6 p.m. The concert is open to all.

International recording artist Beverly Crawford will be the special guest psalmist. Other guest performers will be pastor Antione Hutchins and Unity of Waldorf, Md., Trevon Waters of Lancaster County, mimer minister Fredrick Jones of Durham, N.C.,

Men of Shebach of Heathsville and the Macedonia Baptist Church Praise Dancers.

Tickets are $20 prior to September 8, or $25. Advance tickets are available in Callao at EVB Bank and Ability Abounds Physical Therapy and Wellness Center, in Burgess at Transport Unlimited, in Lottsburg at Andrea's Boutique and in Warsaw at Ebony and Ivory Hair Salon, or call the church office at 580-2395.

Reflections

Our Family

I hail from a blended family. My mom and dad divorced when I was a pup.

Mom remarried first, and from that union produced a child, my half sister, Norma Jo Hooten, of Atlanta, Ga.

My dad married Rosena Ritger (who was a wonderful stepmom to me). Rosena had a daughter by her first husband. So, I have a stepsister, Carole deBardelaben, of Cary, N.C., as well.

Our family is much like many others: wrought with tears of sadness and joy; rich with memories of those loved and lost.

Family has taken on new proportions for me since Hazel Ione Shelton asked me to marry her.

Right off the bat, the chap who married us, the Rev. Mr. H. Craig Smith, of Morattico Baptist Church, is not only my younger brother in the ministry, he was adopted by our family whilst we were seminarians in the 1970s. My first two kiddos think he is their older brother. I, in turn married Craig to wife Janet. Together they have three children; which by the way, expands our tribe universally.

Hazel and I each brought our two kids into the family with the ever expanding down-line offspring. The base grew. Four children, nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren, were added into a cadre looming towards a hundred.

You see, in due course Jenny acquired two precious stepdaughters: Megan and Shelby. Megan lives in the suburbs of Ottoman, Va., where she and George wrestle with two daughters.

Shelby found a guy named David, in east Tennessee. Now they've had a daughter, Maci (recently seen in Tennessee Orange!).

After a detour or two, Jenny put herself through college, and nursing school. She is now gainfully employed at Rappahannock General Hospital. Oh, she is also now enrolled in a master's of nursing curriculum.

Son Lee stood boldly in Irvington Baptist Church, where his mom's casket once lay to sing at our wedding, whilst Rev. Smith tied the knot. To God be the Glory.

Lee and wife Kim (of west Tennessee) have a daughter, Laura, and a son, Shane. Laura is a senior in nursing school and betrothed to a Northumberland pup named Andrew. Her eighth-grade brother, Shane, is both a musician and an athlete.

Daughter Mary Ellen and hubby Ronnie, of Knoxville, are being raised by three teen kiddos: Alicia, Isaiah, and Noah. Ah justice, God remembered!

Son Rob Pittman was a

Many of my relationships, beyond bloodline, have come to me as I was invited into the families of others. Aunts and uncles became parents, along with grandparents, as well. Many a neighbor's fence was the path to yet other circles of love.

cadet at Fork Union Military Academy when his mom and I married. Along the path he acquired a Virginia bride, Sarah Beth, who actually grew up in the same Alta Vista Baptist Church with the Queen Jeweler, "Miss Karen" of Burkes. The Pitmans have two lads: first-grader Porter, and rambunctious two-year-old Nolan. Golf course and Bank provide slim economy... yet they thrive.

All along life's path God has inserted others into the clan. Church kids, neighbors, troubled youths, all were born in our hearts. Each has a niche and either will or already has, enlarged the tent.

I have this future vision of either Hazel or I falling from our wheelchair at Walmart, clutching the Christmas list, trying to find the right present for whosoever is left upon the list.

It all brings to mind a song, a poem of old. Read along, I hope you will find it amusing.

"Many, many years ago when I was twenty three, I got married to a widow who was pretty as could be.

This widow had a grown-up daughter who had hair of red. My father fell in love with her, and soon the two were wed.

This made my dad my son-in-law and changed my very life.

My daughter was my mother, for she was my father's wife.

To complicate the matters worse, although it brought me joy, I soon became the father of a bouncing baby boy.

My little baby then became a brother-in-law to dad. And so became my uncle, though it made me very sad. For if he was my uncle, then that also made him brother to the widow's grown-up daughter who, of course, was my stepmother.

Father's wife then had a son, who kept them on the run. And he became my grandson, for he was my daughter's son.

My wife is now my mother's mother and it makes me blue. Because, although she is my wife, she's my grandma too.

If my wife is my grandmother, then I am her grandchild. And every time I think of it, it simply drives me wild. For now I have become the strangest case you ever saw. As the husband of my grandmother, I am my own grandpa." (Author Unknown.)

The Bible has been such a blessing to me, especially as it taught me about being adopted into the Family of God. If you'd like to refresh a bit, try reading Romans 8:15, 23; 9:4; Galatians 4:5 and Ephesians 1:5.

Many of my relationships, beyond bloodline, have come to me as I was invited into the families of others. Aunts and uncles became parents, along with grandparents, as well. Many a neighbor's fence was the path to yet other circles of love.

Scout over: Make room in our families for those God wants to birth in our hearts.

Rev. John Farmer has been the pastor at Irvington Baptist Church since 1986.

Irvington Baptist Church tweens, teens and chaperones lead worship service.

Youth team reports on mission experiences

Some 13 members of the Irvington Baptist Church youth team recently attended Missions Connection Week at Eagle Eyrie Baptist Camp near Lynchburg.

On August 24, the church's tweens and teens conducted the 11 a.m. worship service and several members of the Eagle Eyrie team shared with their church family the various mission projects in which they participated, said youth director Hazel Farmer.

Projects included working in a soup kitchen, leading vacation Bible schools and other programs for children, doing landscaping and painting projects for homes in need of repair, said Farmer.

Several of the youth were on a drama team that performed at nursing homes and other locations throughout the greater Lynchburg area, she said. One member of the team was on the photography team and visited all of the work sites and then produced a mission project video each night for the worship service.

During the service at Irvington Baptist, she shared a video she had put together of the IBC mission team family; it was titled "The Hands and Feet of Jesus."

The day was made even more special because musician Drew Poplin was able to attend and participate in the service, continued Farmer.

Poplin, a rising second-year student at Christopher Newport University, was the musician on the Eagle Eyrie traveling drama team. He came and shared his musical talents, both guitar and voice.

Farmer extended a special thanks to all of the youth for conducting the service, with a special thanks to the Eagle Eyrie team, including Drew, and to their chaperones, Pastor John Farmer and Kristie Duryea.

Obituary

Albert W. J. Anderson

LANCASTER—Albert W.J. "Big Al" Anderson died August 14, 2014, in Richmond after a long and valiant battle with cancer.

Mr. Anderson was born in Washington D.C., March 6, 1942. He served honorably in the United States Air Force and was a member of the Washington D.C. Fire Department.

After moving to Lancaster County in 1986, he became an active member of the Moose Lodge, rising to the rank of Governor of the Lancaster Lodge. He also served as a member of the Lancaster County Wetlands Board for many years.

Mr. Anderson was predeceased by his parents, George and Una Anderson, his twin brother Charles Anderson, and two sisters, Joy Matthews and Adonna Dowdy.

He leaves behind a host of relatives and friends and will be sorely missed by all who knew and loved him.

A celebration of his life will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday, September 6, at the Callao Moose Lodge #917, 968 Northumberland Highway, Callao.
